

Temporary Parking Changes

Construction on the new Pardee Cancer Center continues to take shape. As part of the project, several parking lot changes are underway that will impact parking. Signage is in place to help direct our patients and visitors.

We encourage you to add a few additional minutes to your travel time to allow for navigation of the campus changes and allow for parking and time to access the entrance closest to your appointment. We appreciate your patience during throughout this construction project.

